The Village Playhouse of Wauwatosa

Proudly presents a benefit performance of its 2007 AACTFest entry
A one hour excerpt of

One Performance Only !

The Laramie Project

By Moises Kaufman and the members of Tectonic Theatre Project

On February 10th, the Village Playhouse will perform its excerpt of The Laramie Project in Verona, Wisconsin. The show will be competing against six other community theatres for the privilege of representing the state at the Great Lakes Regional Community Theatre festival which could lead to the chance to perform at the national and international festivals. Come see great theatre and help offset the expenses of representing the Village Playhouse at the state festival.

Friday February 2nd, 2007 -- 8:00 PM

Walker's Point Center for the Arts
911 West National Avenue

$10.00 in advance -- $12.00 at the door

A talkback will follow the performance.
