

Village Playhouse of Wauwatosa

presents

A Benefit for its 2009 AACTFest Entry

Take all those absurdist imagines- add some witty writing, a little sex, and a generous jolt from the amazing lazomatic and that's the script. The Adventures of Captain Neato-Man is a wacky, super duper farce. An innocent nerd answers an employment ad and winds up in the clutches of a combination Batman Superman in need of a sidekick. Add in his mother and his sidekick's possible one true love and you have a night of mirth and mayhem.

On the last weekend in February, the Village Playhouse will perform The Adventures of Captain-Neato-Man in Prairie du Sac, Wisconsin. The show will be competing against other community theatres for the privilege of representing the state at the Great Lakes Regional Community Theatre festival which could lead to the chance to perform at the national and international festivals. Come see great theatre and help offset the expenses of representing the Village Playhouse at the state festival.

$13.00 at the door
