As this season closes it's time to announce our shows for 1992-93.

"TOM JONES"

"FIFTH OF JULY"
By Lanford Wilson
4 Women 4 Men

"Fifth Of July" is an evening of humorous and touching human drama. A group of former 60's student activists have reunited for a day- a disabled Vietnam Vet, a horticulturist, an aspiring rock musician, are a few of the friends who wonder what happened to their ideals.

"LEADER OF THE PACK"

The VPW returns to a musical production this coming season. "Leader Of The Pack" is a delightful revue of many popular tunes familiar to us baby boomers and beyond. Put on your leather, rev-up the "Harley" and drag on down to "The Chapel Of Love" where you will "Be My Baby" doing the "Hanky Panky" till the "Do Wah Diddy" "Da-Do Ron Ron"!

See the suave Captain Reanult maneuver his sordid affairs- watch the dastardly Major Strasser and courageous Victor Lasslo duel in song- the epicene Ugatti snivels. the sentimentalist Ric pines alone in his gin joint for the true love and sweet lips of the ever radiant and enchanting Ilsa.
As time goes by, Sam will play it- it won't ammount to a hill of beans- it will be the beginning of a beautiful friendship.
Come celebrate the 50th anniversary of "CASABLANCA". Come in character if you like. The "Friends of Romance" will move across the street to Von Triers for a cordial after the show.
"Here's looking at you, kid."
