VENUE

Still searching for stage space. The Sharon Lynne Wilson Center is a beautiful place. Unfortunately they have made it impossible for VPW to perform there. Their costs are far too high for a community theatre to make any profit. Not only do they have a high rental fee but they also charge extra for their tech people who we are forced to use. They control the ticket sales and programs. They take their fees out of the income and give us what ever is left. Which usually isn't very much. If we had a corporate sponsor it might work, but since we don't we must find a venue that is less costly. We talked with the Wauwatosa Rec. Dept. to use the High Schools but were turned down. They say the High School's schedule would not allow for the time we would need. Our most recent find is The Faith United Lutheran Church on 78th and Hope. It is a small stage but workable for small productions. The problem we face now is having our audience find us. Check it out, Can you find Faith???
